

If we are forced to purchase new tv's with this proposal, I for one will be canceling my cable subscription and stop watching tv altogether. At least 95% of programing is really bad anyway, and there is no way I either could or would buy one of these sets.